Subject: Bummer, BUT...

...I will be back at a better company soon and I have done my research. The new companies I am looking at have been around a long time and are not going anywhere.

That was the foreshadow.
The news :

Right Away Mortgage is no longer, unfortunately. They have shut their doors as of today.
I appreciate working with most of you and talking and pre-qualing with the rest.
I will be back and am taking this closing as a new step forward and more opportunities.

I will be in contact shortly. IF you need to get a hold of me, you can reach me at indeecar@excite.com

Talk to you soon and TAKE CARE please. Have a great day and 3-day weekend !!!
